The daily-life proposal for orchid and beauty

Ms. Hana Chen

Abstract

In this era of information explosion, we are obliged to make numerous decisions every day. However, nothing can replace flowers as they represent our yearning for beautiful things and our wish to encapsulate the impermanence of time. Among all flowers, orchids are especially unique. Elegant and simple, orchids have been an auspicious symbol since ancient times. Imagine how wonderful it would be to come home with a vase of fragrant and elegant orchids waiting for you every day?

Each flower has its own characteristics, but no flower variety should be seen only as a symbol for marriage, funeral, or job promotion. Through simple daily projects, you will be able to take a sneak peek at the boundless beauty of this “Gentleman of Flowers.”
