

ASIAN AGRICULTURISTS visit Tuskegee Institute, famed American Negro school, to study farm teaching methods. Visitors, l. to r., are Nguyen Quang Luu, Vietnam; Oukee Souvannavong, Laos; Saw Hla Aung Laik, Burma; Pablo No Mabbun and Rafael Corpus of Philippines. Left, campus view. Top right, monument symbolizes Negro struggle for equality inspired by leader Booker T. Washington.

JOSE MELENCIO, late Philippine ambassador to Japan, lies in state in Tokyo.

FREE CHINA Air Force gunner checks sights on bomber waist gun, Formosa.

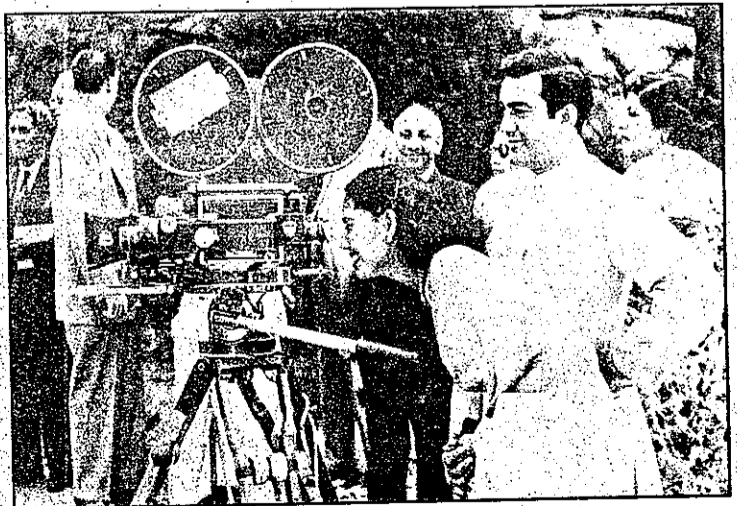

MALAYA'S WOMEN, fighting back against communist terrorists, join Home Guard to defend villages.

THAI EMBASSY members greet visiting Prince Wan Waithayakorn on his arrival at Washington, D. C.

KOREAN CHILDREN need clothing. Left, Madame Yang, wife of Korean ambassador to U. S., sorts contributions. Right, American soldier helps children dress.

MOVIE STARS Suryakumari and Prem Nath from India study Hollywood techniques on invitational tour.