

NEW ADMINISTRATION IN U. S.

The new Republican administration of President Dwight Eisenhower and the new Republican Congress have taken over in the United States. Above, opening session of the House of Representatives. Inset, Senator Robert Taft, powerful Republican leader in the new Congress.

Above are shown key figures in the executive branch of the new U. S. government. Center is President Eisenhower. Around his picture, reading counter-clockwise from top right, are: Herbert Brownell, attorney-general; Arthur Summerfield, postmaster-general; Charles Wilson, secretary of defense; John Foster Dulles, secretary of state; Douglas McKay, secretary of the interior; Ezra Benson, secretary of agriculture; George Humphrey, secretary of the treasury; Martin Durkin, secretary of labor; Sinclair Weeks, secretary of commerce, and two women in important jobs, Mrs. Oveta Hobby, federal security administrator, and Mrs. Ivy Priest, treasurer.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS of Vietnam and Cambodia study commercial fishing methods in Hong Kong on tour.

FUTURE TEACHERS at Vietnam school learn to direct children at their games.

MISS WONG of Hong Kong, a staff member, at Singapore table tennis matches.

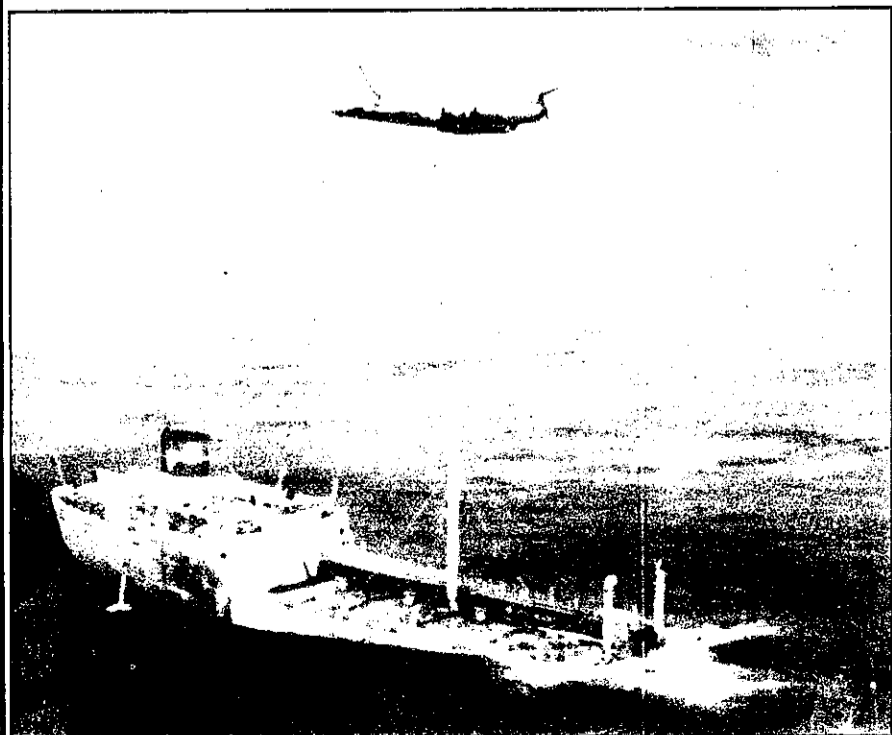

INDIAN CHILDREN study huge model of mosquito, learn how it can spread disease.

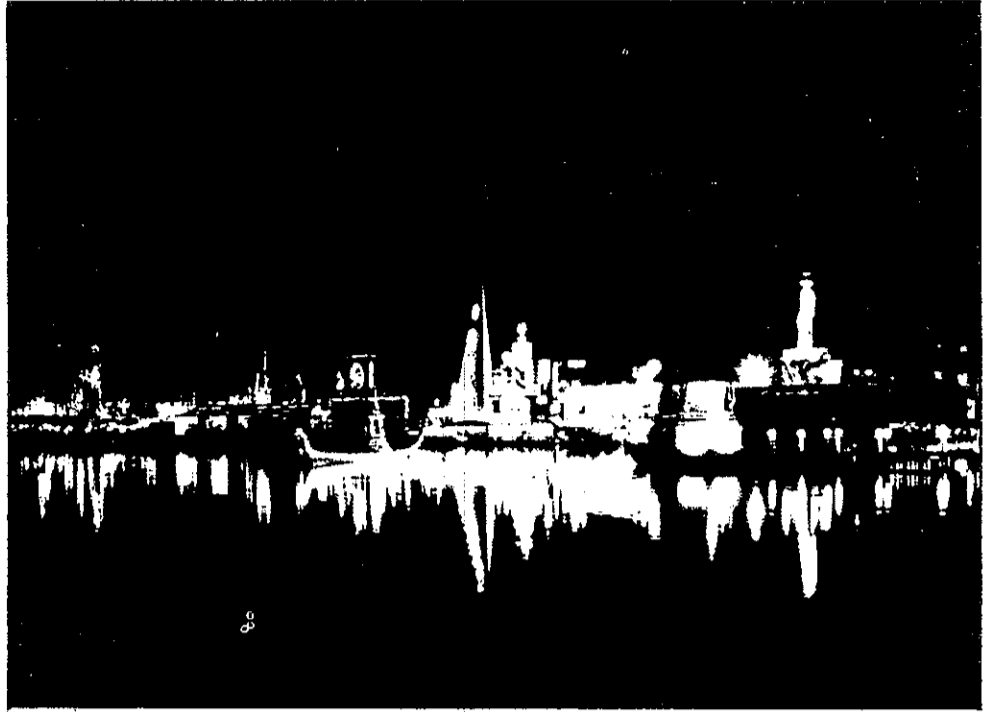

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER, in solemn inaugural oath, swears before Chief Justice Vinson "to preserve and protect" U.S. constitution.

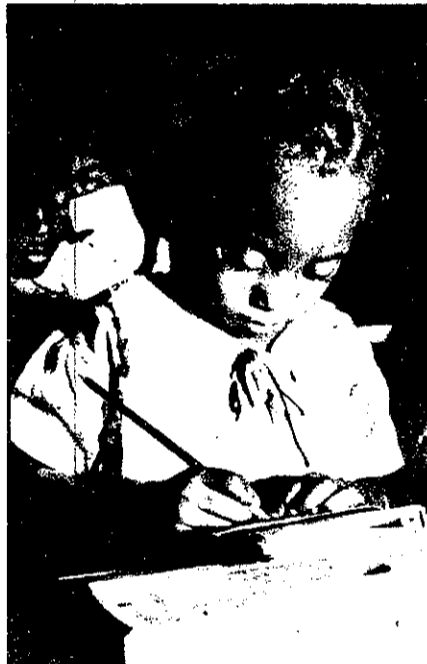

VIETNAM'S SOLDIERS keep up constant pressure on rebel Vietminh in north Vietnam fighting.

AIR RESCUE plane of U.S. air force hovers over broken stern of Swedish tanker awash near Okinawa.

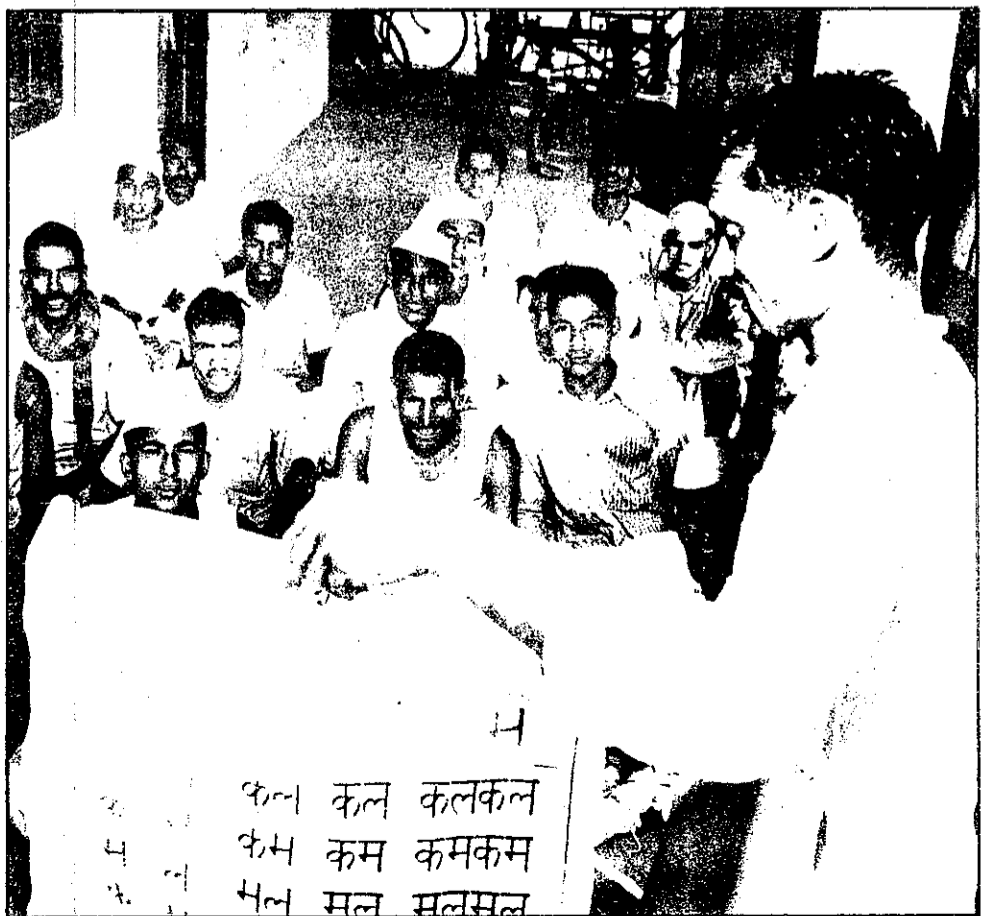

LIGHTED EXHIBITS on waterfront make a nighttime fairyland in Bangkok at Thailand's Constitution Fair.

SMALL GIRL at new UN education center in Haiti studies her lesson intently.

MALAY EDITOR Choong Kok Swee, on U.S. tour, makes snowballs with U.S. youngster.

ADULT CLASSES to increase literacy, like this one in Etawah district, are part of India's "community development program."